Action Research Project:
Making Moodle more inclusive

What is it?

A deeper look into how Moodle works (or doesn't) for people who are neurodiverse, visually impaired or disabled.

Why now?

It's part of my PG Cert Academic Practice in Art, Design and Communication.

Why not ask everyone?

We will ask everyone, we're just focusing on these students for now. Happy to hear feedback at any time.

Why take part?

A chance to improve your course Moodle pages and contribute to a cross-CSM Moodle template. Plus, it's really helpful!

What does taking part involve?

Online questionnaire
5mins.

- Mosty tick boxes.
- Confidential.

If you prefer to give your feedback 1:1, let me know and we can make an appointment.

Focus group (up to 8 participants)
60mins

- Relaxed, friendly, informal, confidential.
- Thinking and talking about Moodle.
- Wednesday 29 Nov or 6 Dec
- Snacks!

Key information:

- Confidentiality

  o No need to disclose personal information to peers.
  o Project findings will be shared, but anonymously.
  o All data will be stored securely.

- No impact on your course outcome.

- Audio recording for analysis purposes only.

- You can withdraw from the project at any time.

For more information, scan the QR code, or pick up a hard copy of the Participant Information Sheet or please get in touch: a.urry@csm.arts.ac.uk

Do you have any questions?

Happy to take part?

Please use any of these ways to join in:

- Scan the QR code
- Pick up a Participant Consent Form and give to me/your tutor.
- Come and see me this morning.
- Check your Moodle announcements.
- Get in touch: a.urry@csm.arts.ac.uk

Thank you!
